Day 3 Ennis - Galway

Hold on to your hats because today we'll visit the awesome Cliffs of Moher rising hundreds of feet over the Atlantic Ocean. Vertigo sufferers beware! After lunch we'll explore the weird and magical world of the Burren, Ireland's lunar landscape and home to ancient tombs, fairies and leprechauns. Here, your Guide will talk of the Celtic legends surrounding the ancient burial tombs, or dolmens. Our stop for the night is Galway, Ireland's cultural capital and festival city.

Overnight: Galway

Day 4 Connemara Day (Nov-March)

We spend a whole day on Inis Mór, the largest of the Aran Islands. Inis Mór has over 3,000 miles of stone walls. The locals here are fluent Irish (Gaelic) speakers and you'll be free to explore the island and get chatting to them over a pint. You can take a walk, a horse and cart or for the more energetic, explore the island by bike. You can't miss the awe-inspiring fortress of Dun Aonghasa, a 3,000 year old Iron Age ring fort perched on the edge of a 300 foot high cliff. After a tremendous day it's time to head back to the main land for a pint of Guinness or two in Galway's buzzing pub scene.

Day 4 Inis Mor Day (Aran Islands)

Enjoy the spectacular scenery of Connemara, from sandy beaches to rugged mountains and misty peat bogs. We stop at Ireland's own Holy Mountain and destination of pilgrims, Croagh Patrick. We pay a visit to the National Famine Memorial to learn about a tragic chapter in Ireland's history. All this fresh air demands a pint at Matt Molloy's pub in Westport and then it's back to Galway for more shenanigans.

Day 5 Galway - Dublin

Spend a free morning exploring the City of the Tribes with its fascinating history and streets thriving with buskers playing great live music. It's then time to say farewell to the City of the Tribes and return to Dublin's Fair City.
