Itinerary

Day 1 Edinburgh/Glasgow - Eilean Donan Castle – Isle of Skye

A Spectacular Route North

Our route to Skye takes you past beautiful Stirling Castle, across the brooding expanse of Rannoch Moor and through Glen Coe.

As our road nears the coast, it passes Eilean Donan Castle*. Here you have the chance to take photographs and explore the castle that featured in the film Highlander. Then it's time to cross the bridge to Skye.

Day 2 Isle of Skye – Loch Ness

A full day on Skye

You've got a full day to explore the island. This means that you can take things nice and easy but still see all the sights, such as the craggy Cuillin Mountains, the dramatic hills of the Quiraing and outstanding beautiful Trotternish Peninsula.

Collect some Skye Memories

What Skye memories will you bring back? Maybe you'll spy an inquisitive seal peaking out of the waves as you walk the coast, or a stag silhouetted on a hillside. In the evening you'll say goodbye to the Isle and head south to Loch Ness.

Day 3 Loch Ness – Pitlochry – Edinburgh/Glasgow

Monster Spotting on Loch Ness

After a good night's sleep near the shores of Loch Ness you'll have loads of time to explore. Why not take a boat tour over to Urquhart Castle*, visit the Loch Ness 2000 Exhibition*, or just monster hunt from the shore?

Inverness, the Cairngorms and Pitlochry

As we head home, you'll visit the battlefield of Culloden, the site of the defeat of the Jacobite forces. You'll also pass the stunning Cairngorm Mountains and explore the picturesque town of Pitlochry.

Itinerary

Day 1 Edinburgh/Glasgow – Perthshire – Loch Ness – Drumnadrochit

Through the Highlands to Loch Ness

The tour starts by heading north through the stunning lowland countryside of Fife and Perthshire. Take a woodland walk along the riverside at Dunkeld and visit its ancient cathedral, then travel into the heart of the Highlands and explore Loch Ness, where you can take a cruise*.

Day 2 Drumnadrochit – Glen Affric - Eilean Donan Castle – Isle of Skye

Mountains, Castles and the Magical Isle of Skye

Day two takes you through the stunning scenery of Glen Affric. How about a stroll up to a stunning waterfall surrounded by ancient Caledonian forest? You then pass the Torridon Mountains, visit the stunningly beautiful Eilean Donan Castle* and go on, over the sea, to the magical Isle of Skye.

Day 3 Isle of Skye

A Whole Day to explore Skye

You'll have the whole of the third day to explore Skye's mysteries and landscape. Here the mountains and beaches beckon, so lose yourself amongst the spectacular scenery of the Cuillin Mountains, the slanting hills of Quiraing and the incredible Trotternish Peninsula.

Day 4 Isle of Skye – Glen Coe – Oban

A day of High Hills and History

Day four sees you travelling south past Ben Nevis (Britain's tallest peak) and down the dramatic west coast and through the haunting landscape of Glen Coe (scene of the terrible massacre of the MacDonald Clan).

Day 5 Oban - Kilmartin Glen – Edinburgh/Glasgow

Find Ancient Scotland at Your Feet

On day five explore Scotland's ancient past at Kilmartin Glen, where over 5000 years of history are laid out before you. Walk in the footsteps of the first Scots at Dunadd Hill fort and the Temple Wood Stone Circle.
